

Treasury Specialist (part-time)

Does this sound like you? Apply today!

Are you an experienced Treasury Specialist looking for a flexible part-time opportunity in an international environment? IMMORTEC, a global leader in immersion techniques for tunnels, caissons and offshore wind turbine foundations, is looking for a Treasury Specialist available 2 to 4 days per month to manage our international currency flows and provide insights into our cashflow projections.

Your Challenge

As our Treasury Specialist, you will be responsible for analyzing, managing and reporting on our international cash flows and currency risks. You'll collaborate closely with our project and finance teams and play a vital role in managing our multi-currency exposure.

Your key responsibilities will include:

- Preparing and updating monthly cash flow projections per currency, based on the latest project reports
- Analyzing variances and adjusting projections as needed
- Mapping currency positions and identifying foreign exchange risks
- Advising on and implementing hedging strategies
- Selecting the most suitable financial instruments to mitigate risks
- Supporting our team with hedging strategies in international tenders

We estimate a workload of approximately 2 to 4 days per month, with flexible scheduling by mutual agreement. We are open to freelance or contract-based collaboration.

Who Are We Looking For

We are looking for an analytical and experienced Treasury Specialist with a strong interest in international projects. You are independent, precise and familiar with currency risk management and hedging in a dynamic setting.

You bring:

- Significant experience in treasury, finance or risk management in an international context
- Expertise in cash flow forecasting, hedging strategies and financial markets
- The ability to translate complex data into actionable advice
- Excellent communication skills in English, both written and verbal.

What We Offer

A highly driven and collegial international work environment with plenty of room for personal input and flexibility. This is a freelance or part-time contract position with excellent terms and conditions.

Our organization operates with a flat structure and a culture inspired by an entrepreneurial family business - warm, open and people-focused, with an emphasis on long-term stability and sustainable employability.

Interested

Are you a financial expert who thrives on bringing structure and insight to international operations? Do you enjoy using your currency management expertise to contribute to exceptional global projects? Then we'd love to hear from you!
